Peace Envoys Meet and Take up Question of Korea First.

MOVEMENTS IN THE FAR EAST SEEM LESS WARLIKE THAN LAST WEEK

Count Witte Denies That He Favors War---Says He Is For Peace, as at First.

TWELVE CONDITIONS PEACE ENVOYS ARE NOW WEIGHING.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 14.—It is understood that the twelve peace conditions proposed by the Japanese are:

1. Recognition of Japan's preponderance of influence in Korea.
2. Cession of Russian-Chinese railway from Port Arthur to Harbin.
3. Transfer of authority over Port Arthur and Liau Tung peninsula.
4. Cession of Saghalien.
5. Granting of fishing privileges at the mouth of the Amur.
6. The evacuation of Manchuria.
7. The granting of commercial privileges at Vladivostok.
8. The transfer of interwar ships.
9. Limitation of Russia's naval strength in the far East.
10. Remuneration for the cost of the war.
11. Recognition of the independence of China.
12. Return to China of Russian mining privileges in Manchuria.

The Discussions Begin.

Portsmouth, Aug. 14.—When the peace plenipotentiaries met this morning a discussion of the Japanese position of Korea was begun at once. It is understood there will not be much difficulty in reaching a satisfactory conclusion on the Korean subject. Later the broader and more important question of the evacuation of Manchuria by the Russians and the cession of the Chinese Eastern railway will be taken up.

Witte Denies.

Portsmouth, Aug. 14.—Count Witte denounced as a lie today the published statement that he had expressed the belief that there would be no peace, and that he had no real wish for it. He says the Russians are financially able to carry on war, but his influence and desire is for peace, as it was before he started on the mission.

To Avoid Conflict.

Tokio, Aug. 14.—It is reported that the Russians who have been overrunning the northern part of Korea, intend to avoid a conflict with the Japanese forces in Korea. It is impossible, however, to verify the report.

Worse at Riga.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 14.—The situation at Riga where the great strike is in progress, and where numerous scenes of disorder are witnessed, is growing worse. Fifteen thousand workmen are on a strike and agitators are constantly at work trying to arouse the people. Great concern is felt by the authorities and the better class of citizens, who fear the rioting.

Russians Reported Retiring.

Tokio, Aug. 14.—It is reported that the Russians are retiring across the Tumen river and will avoid battle in northern Korea. Contradiction of the rumor is not obtainable.

Will Fight Every Inch.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 14.—Events of the past week have demonstrated that Russia intends to contest every Japanese claim, inch by inch. Nothing will be taken for granted and no concessions be made.

Elmer Townsend Files Suit Against Col. Noel Gaines For $10,000 Damages

Attorneys R. T. Lightfoot, L. K. Taylor and Frank Lucas this morning filed a suit for Elmer Townsend against Col. Noel Gaines, K. S. G., who is in command here of the state troops, for $10,000 damages for alleged exceeding his authority. Townsend alleges that he is a civilian and employed at the Wallace park theater. He was at the refreshment stand one day last week up bread when Col. Gaines rode up on a horse. They immediately went to work showing their fear and awe of the officer, and Townsend thinking the action of the rebels very funny, laughed.

He alleges that Col. Gaines then asked him what he was laughing at and when told ordered him under arrest and rushed to the guard house in "double quick," where he was kept from 11 o'clock in the morning until 3 in the afternoon.

JUMPED INTO THE RIVER TO GET AWAY

Man Who Is Believed to Have Caught Logs Arrested.

He Leaped Off His Boat While His Wife Traded Officer E. H. Cross to Prevent Shooting.

ESCAPED IN THE WILLOWS.

A great deal of excitement was aroused along the river front this morning shortly after 9 o'clock when a fugitive jumped into the river to escape from Officer E. H. Cross. Following the plunge the fugitive swam ashore and started along the river bank at a rapid pace when the willows were reached completely outstripped the officer.

Several days ago a raft of 700 logs broke loose up Duck river. The logs were the property of the Singer Sewing Machine company, and it is alleged were caught by a river man named Silas Stegoli who lived in a shantyboat.

Officer E. H. Cross located Stegoli this morning after the river man had disposed of many of the logs here and with Market Master Frank Smedley went to his boat below the dry docks and "jumped" him.

Stegoli showed fight and Officer Cross pulled his gun. Stegoli ran out of the door and jumped into the river on the outside of his houseboat. His wife seeing the threatening pistol grabbed Officer Cross and held him to prevent his using the weapon.

Market Master Smedley was standing outside the boat to prevent Stegoli running out and passing him, but Stegoli had gone out the other end of his boat to escape. Officer Smedley heard the wrestling match between Officer Cross and the woman and going in to investigate missed Stegoli, who swam ashore and escaped.

When the officers realized their game had escaped for the time being, they rushed from the boat and gave chase on land.

Stegoli had a good lead and maintained it. Officer Cross continued the chase deep into the willows.

A telephone message to the city hall brought out the patrol wagon and several officers and detectives, but they arrived too late. Stegoli had made good his escape.

Telegrams have been sent out to all towns and stations along the river and railroad to watch out for the fugitive and it is likely he will be captured before tomorrow, as the officers are hot on his trail.

NEW CASES TODAY.

New Orleans, Aug. 14.—Eighteen cases and seven deaths had been reported at noon. Twelve cases were reported in the Plaquemine parish.

Tighter at Cairo.

Cairo, Ill., Aug. 14.—The health inspectors are tightening up all avenues leading into Illinois from the south. Three additional guards have been placed at the Cairo bridge and large numbers have been detailed to watch the river banks, all steamboats that will be allowed to stop must land at the main wharf at Cairo. Every precaution is being taken to keep the dreaded Yellow Jack out of Illinois.

The towboat J. B. Finley is due from New Orleans and orders have been issued to prevent the boat from landing at Cairo. Dr. J. W. Amason, surgeon in the United States public health and marine hospital service, arrived from Seattle, Wash., and assumed charge of the local hospital during the absence of M. Gutierrez, who is now in New Orleans fighting the yellow fever.

Death Increasing.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 14.—The heavy increase in the number of cases which began four or five days ago is beginning to manifest itself in the death list, which can be expected to grow steadily for the next few days. The number of new cases yesterday seems small in comparison with Saturday's record, but it is really 19 short, as that number of cases were turned in by an inspector just after the hour for closing the report.

Among the cases yesterday was Louis Cucullin, Jr., cashier of the People's bank, who resides far out on North Johnson street. Another case is Maurice Kenny, ex-councilman and ex-member of the legislature. Two of Kenny's daughters were stricken yesterday. Only five of the new fuel are above Canal street.

TO LOCATE HERE.

Mr. L. L. Creasy, of Covington, Ky., likes Paducah.

Mr. L. L. Creasy, of Covington, Ky., a prominent merchandise broker, has decided to locate in Paducah and has rented as a residence the Lang property on North Eighth street near Madison.

Mr. Creasy will immediately rent or build a store and start up in business. He is an enterprising and pushing young business man, and well known in the portion of the state in which he has been living. He has been contemplating moving to Paducah some time and only recently decided to locate here. He finds Paducah a very thriving town with all sorts of possibilities for a good, progressive business.

ENJOYING A REST

The President Will Receive No Visitors Until Thursday.

Oyster Bay Aug. 14.—President Roosevelt was given a complete rest from several cases today, as no visitors were received at Sagamore Hill and none is expected before Thursday. The president played tennis today and went for a horseback ride.

MR. W. J. HARAHAN

Was in Paducah a Short Time Today.

Mr. W. J. Harahan, fourth vice-president of the I. C. road, passed through the city this morning en route to Louisville from the south. He traveled in his private car No. 1 and was met at the depot here by Superintendent A. H. Egan, of the Louisville division of the I. C., and accompanied up the road.

Mr. Harahan is looking after the company's business and stated that the yellow fever in the south had affected the road's business to some extent. The inconvenience of fumigation and quarantine inspections delay the passenger trains and this adds to the general confusion. All roads in the south are affected by the fever scare and some freight trains with perishable fruits, such as bananas, etc., are not permitted to stop at some places and the fruit business in general has been damaged in the south.

IN DAYLIGHT

A MAYFIELD MAN CLAIMS HE WAS HELD UP.

Identified Jim Doolin as the Man and Doolin Was Locked Up.

J. K. P. Hayden, a young man giving Mayfield as his home, appeared at the police station this morning and reported an alleged daylight robbery.

He stated that he was on North Second street behind the Terrell wholesale grocery this morning about 10 o'clock when a heavy built man who works on an ice wagon accosted him and demanded his money. Hayden stated that he tried to get away but the man pulled his coat and when he saw he was "up against it" pulled out $5 and gave it to the man. He stated he would recognize the highwayman again if he saw him and intended hanging about the ice factory to see if he could find the man again. Hayden seemed to be partially under the influence of liquor.

Shortly before noon Hayden saw Jim Doolin, a boy under 20 years of age, and identified him as the man who, he declares, compelled him to hand over the $5.

Hayden telephoned to Capt. Wood, who sent Officers Terrell and Cross to investigate and they returned with Doolin under arrest. Five dollars in silver, the amount taken off Hayden, was found on Doolin and he was locked up pending a preliminary hearing. Hayden says Doolin is the man without mistake and seems intent on prosecuting him.

SHOT AT CHICKEN

Warren, the five-year-old son of Mr. Walter Cunningham, of Monroe and Twelfth streets, was accidentally shot in the right arm this morning by a young man named Robertson who was shooting at a chicken.

Robertson had a small flobert rifle and the bullet struck a brick and glanced over across the street into the Cunningham yard, striking the little fellow, who was standing in the yard, in the right arm midway between the elbow and shoulder.

Dr. J. E. Woelfle was called and dressed the wound, which is not thought to be serious. The shooting was purely accidental and completely upset the young man who did it.

Death of Miss Eliza Rice.

Miss Eliza Rice, who lived with her sister, Mrs. P. N. Bukey, at 11th and Harrison streets, died at 2:20 p. m. today of malarial fever, age 67. Her other sisters are: Mrs. Mary Stafford and Mrs. Sallie Simpson, of the city. Her brothers are: George Rice, Princeton, Ky.; Jim Rice, of Kuttawa, Ky.; and Robert Rice, of Haverhill, Mo. No funeral arrangements have been made.

Requisition for Luster.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 14.—Gov. Beckham this morning issued a requisition on the Utah governor for the return to Kentucky of Percy J. Luster, and designated R. L. Burrus, of Guthrie, Ky., as state's agent to go after him.

NEGLECT OF ORDERS CAUSES BAD WRECK

Twelve Killed in a Smash Near Cleveland, O.

Most of Them Were Italian Laborers Employed by the Standard Oil Company.

ENGINEER KILLED AT HIS POST.

Cleveland, Aug. 14.—A fast east-bound passenger train on the Nickel Plate road collided with a west-bound freight train early yesterday at Kihman, O., near Vermillion, resulting in the death of twelve persons, while at least twenty-five others were injured, eight of whom will probably die. The wreck, according to officials of the company, was caused by misunderstanding of orders, or failure to obey them on the part of the crew of the freight train.

List of dead:

Charles W. Poole, engineer passenger train, aged 60, Conneaut, O. Joseph Alexander, Newark, N. J. Frank Weaver, Findlay, O. Antonio Grillo, Domenico Pomodoro, Italian laborers. Joseph Paraci, Frank Ruscoli, Francisco Scella, Natale Dimora, Antonio Achille Galagusa Travoia, Cologno Gagliani, laborers.

Richard A. Long, Cleveland, right leg amputated, hip cut head and body contused, probably will die.

Aside from the engineer, the men killed on the passenger train were all riding in the smoking car at the head of the train, and were mostly foreign laborers in the employ of the Standard Oil company on the way from Port Seneca, O., to Brookfield, O. Engineer Poole was killed at his post, while trying to reach for the air brake, after seeing the headlight of the freight train. Fireman Heafner saved himself by jumping.

The high speed of the passenger train threw the locomotive and first three coaches over on the engine of the freight train, telescoping the smoker and car following. The forward cars of the freight train were splintered to fragments.

Of the passengers in the smoker, none escaped injury. Fortunately there was no fire.

As soon as possible after the wreck occurred doctors were sent on a special train to the scene from Lorain.

IN NORWAY

THE PEOPLE SEEM ALMOST UNANIMOUS FOR DISSOLUTION.

Referendum Vote Taken Yesterday Shows That Few Opposed It.

Christiana, Aug. 14.—The Norwegian people in the referendum taken yesterday pronounced in favor of dissolution of the union with Sweden with remarkable, though not unexpected unanimity. Of 450,000 voters, 320,000 cast ballots.

The weather was favorable and there were scenes of the greatest enthusiasm everywhere. Thousands of women who did not have the right of franchise signed petitions in the streets endorsing dissolution. In Christiania and other cities, the total population turned out, every one wearing long streamers of national colors and pictures of Premier Michelson.

At midnight reports from 174 places showed a vote of 95,935 for and 37 against dissolution.

The latest available returns show about the same ratio maintained all over the country as shown in the early returns. The vote is practically unanimous in favor of dissolution.

Paducah Won Yesterday.
Cairo, Ill., Aug. 14.—The Indians took another game from the Wallopers yesterday through costly errors. The game was a slow one. Things looked as if Cairo would win up to the first part of the ninth when Potts knocked a nice little fly to Taafie, who muffed, and let Taylor make the third run for the Indians.

Lane was in fine form, the Indians only getting three hits off him, while the Wallopers took nine off South.

South was put out of the game in the eighth for trying to tell Kubitiz how to umpire.

Hrabie was put into service and held the Wallopers down without a hit.

To cure an aching back, The pains of rheumatism, The tired-out feelings, You must reach the spot—get at the cause.

In most cases 'tis the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys.

Mrs. E. H. Barnard, residing at 1608 Broadway, says: "My husband had to give up the grocery business on account of so much sickness in the family, and I believe for the last six years I have hardly seen a well day until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Alvey & List's drug store. I heard of them and knew of their benefiting others right here in Paducah so I made up my mind to try them. My son and I each used a box and we soon found they were just the remedy we needed, for we were both troubled with kidney ailments. The lameness left my back entirely and the rheumatism with which I have been afflicted was much improved. We can both highly endorse Doan's Kidney Pills as a kidney remedy of great merit."

An Evansville dispatch to the Globe Democrat says:

Hub Knoll is still trying to get Grover Land, the Paducah catcher, for the Dayton team. If the Kitty league goes to the wall it seems certain Knoll will get his man.

Danny O'Connor, Paducah's third sacker year before last and later with Cairo, is now an indicator holder in the Carson Central league got his second kicking from players this season the other day. Danny has had a strenuous time of it in the Central.

Baseball authorities say that when the Kitty league disbands it dissolves the black list of players who were thrown out because they refused to play for Cairo. Evansville has signed Percy Wilder as a result.

Ned Zinkins, the umpire who has been ill, is again on duty, and is officiating at the Princeton series.

Paducah today ends the series at Cairo and will go to Vincennes.

Angelo Marre may go to Minneapolis as negotiations are now going on which will probably land the fast second baseman with W. H. Winkler's Millers. Blittroff, Lemon and Blackburn leave Monday night after the last game in Cairo for Decatur where they play from now on. Paducah announces its intention of continuing by playing independent ball, but they will find it rather a tough proposition as independent clubs strong enough to afford it amusement will be rather hard to find. There are none in St. Louis, as they far outclass the Trolley leaguers three to one and in the small towns there is nothing worth speaking and it is only a matter of two weeks until the Paducah management will follow the example set by the others, but that is their business and none of Cairo's knitting.—Cairo Telegram.

A St. Louis dispatch says: "Mrs. Clementine Atkinson filed suit for divorce today from Newton Atkinson, who at one time played baseball with a club at Huntsville, Ala. In her petition she alleges that her husband is a baseball 'fan' and so hopelessly attached to the game that he neglects business, loses every position he gets and fails properly to support his family."

It is believed that the above is the former ball player of Paducah by that name.

Pocket League Talked Of.
There is no doubt that a "Pocket" league will be organized for next season and this year will see the end of the Kitty league, says a Terre Haute special. A number of baseball capitalists are back of the scheme to organize an eight club league composed of Vincennes, Princeton, Washington, Jasper, Tell City, Evansville and Mount Vernon, Ind., and Mount Carmel, Ill., with a salary limit between $600 and $800 and a strict adherence to the limit.—Vincennes Commercial.

Kitty League Leads.

Amateur Games.
There were two amateur games in Paducah yesterday, the Famous meeting the Centrals in the morning and the 1905 team in the afternoon. The Famous took both games but they were well played and interesting throughout.

The first game was played in the morning between the Famous and 1 C. Centrals. The score was 13 to 11, the contest lasting throughout thirteen innings. The batteries were Brown and Smith for the Famous, Sutherland and Gourieux for the Centrals.

In the afternoon the Centrals played the 1905 team at Wallace park. The game was scheduled between the Frankfort soldier team and the 1905 but the soldier team backed out. The Famous took this game by a score of 9 to 4. The batteries were Arnold and E. Hart for the 1905, Dicke and Smith for the Famous.

A very interesting ball game was played Saturday afternoon at Brooks park between the Reidland and Lone Oak teams. The result was a score of 3 to 1 in favor of Reidland.

SUCCESSFUL TEST

Made By Mr. Flin Fields of His Wrecker-Device.

Mr. Flin Fields, foreman of the local I. C. wrecking crew, who was a few weeks ago granted a patent on an apparatus he invented for working wrecks made a test of his invention yesterday at the I. C. shops with the 812, the big freight engine, and it proved successful in every way.

The invention is an anchorage for the tackle used in working wrecks. Formerly the track was dug under and chains placed under the rails. This served as an anchorage but the tracks would often pull up and delay the working of the wreck.

Mr. Fields saw a possibility of perfecting a patent by which this inconvenience would be done away with and devised a clamp to be bolted to the track, all the pull being brought from the length of the rail. If any "give" is noticed it will have to be in the rail stretching, and this is an impossibility. The big freight engine was pulled wide open and every attempt made to loosen or make the anchor give, but to no avail! It held fast.

Mr. Fields will begin manufacturing his patent and expects to place over our display of Optical Goods Field Glasses, Opera Glasses, Lorgnettes, of foreign and domestic manufacture. We also carry a large stock of

EXPEDITION WAS VERY SUCCESSFUL

Found the Zeigler Party in Less Than Two Months.

Terra Nova, on Which Dr. Sam Jackson, son of Paducah, Was to Embark, Has Returned.

SAILED FROM NORWAY JUNE 14

Had Dr. Sam Jackson, of Paducah, son of Mr. George Jackson gone with the Zeigler Arctic expedition in June he would have participated in a successful venture, and now he on his way home. Dr. Jackson went to Tromsø, Norway, this spring, to embark with the expedition, but decided finally not to go, and returned home. He is now in Hot Springs, Ark., where he is in business.

The steamer was the Terra Nova, and it succeeded in rescuing Anthony Flala and other members of the Zeigler expedition in less than two months. She sailed from Tromsø June 14 last, shaping her course direct for the ice fields, which were encountered June 19. On the morning of July 28 Palm Island was sighted and on July 29 the Terra Nova reached Cape Dillon, where she found six members of the expedition safe and well. From this outpost sleds were dispatched to notify Mr. Flala at the headquarters of the camp of the arrival of the ship.

The Terra Nova reached Cape Flora July 30 and found more members of the expedition. These had become weakened by the hardships they had endured and some of them were so ill that they could not have held out for another winter.

Returning to Cape Dillon, Mr. Champ, who commanded the relief expedition, organized a sled party and started for the headquarters of the camp, from which he brought back Mr. Flala and his comrades.

The Terra Nova sailed for home August 1. It got out of the ice pack August 6 and returned in excellent condition.

The members of the Zeigler expedition tell a stirring story of their vain efforts to reach the pole. In the severe weather of November, 1903, the ship America, which carried the expedition, broke up and the provisions and coal were lost. Part of the wreckage remained until January 22, 1904, when it disappeared during a storm.

The loss of the provisions were seriously felt, and but for the stores left by the Baldwin-Ziegler expedition in Tepitz Bay, the men would have been in bad straits. In the following spring continued attempts were made eastward and westward to force a passage to the pole. The conditions, however, were unmountable. The expedition met with much open water and day after day encountered fresh dangers and difficulties. Ultimately the supply of provisions began to give out and a painful journey southward was begun, the members of the expedition finally reaching the depots at Cape Flora, Cape Dillon and Camp Zeigler, among which they were distributed and where they managed to eke out the limited supplies by catching walrus and bear.

WANDERER DIED.

Scissors Sharpener Hit By a Train Succumbed.

The itinerant scissors and razor sharpener who was struck by an I. C. train two miles south of Water Valley, Ky., Friday afternoon late, died at Fulton Saturday night of injuries sustained.

The tramp proved to be G. A. Barber, of Cleveland, O., and he was so filthy that the proprietor of Rucker's hotel in Fulton refused to let him remain there. The injured man was then taken to a negro cabin and kept until he died.

The man had no means and the county will bury him today. He was badly mangled by the train and the physicians knew from the start that he could not survive.

Daily Thought.

"The world would be a place of peace if we were all peace-makers."

WORSE THAN GRAFTING.

Politics is productive of many evils, and grafting does not appear to be the worst. There are to be found in many places men in power who prostitute their offices for purposes of revenge, or to secure political prestige by ruining others. The other day up in Milwaukee a grand jury indicted one of the most prominent men there for misappropriating $14,000. This man has always been a leader in civic progress, and has given away thousands of dollars for public purposes. Fourteen thousand dollars is a mere bagatelle to him, yet he is held up to the eight millions of people in this country as a common thief, and embelzler of this paltry amount.

AUJ on what evidence?

Members of the grand jury themselves admit that there was no evidence. It is said that "he was indicted merely because he was suspected of having made illegal use of money, and by means of an indictment he could be made to account for it."

If grand juries made a practice of indicting on suspicion, a man's character would not be worth ten cents in some places. The real object of the indictment is clear from the manner in which the accused man's political enemies have published it to the world and commented on it.

So grossly unjust was the outrage, that Milwaukee's mayor has issued a public statement charging the grand jury with being in collusion with the man's political enemies, and gratuitously adding that "some of the acts of the district attorney and grand jury are villainous, revengeful and vindictive and approach close to subordination of perjury," and that "proceedings of this kind, instead of inspiring respect for the law, are more apt to engender a contempt for it."

The only consolation the accused gets is that if he is innocent he can easily prove it and come clear. But where is the man who wants to be indicted simply to have the satisfaction of proving himself innocent?

A great deal of grafting may have been exposed in Wisconsin, but from the statements of the mayor of Milwaukee, there are other and perhaps worse things that need the limelight of publicity turned on them.

If the mosquito is the only means of transmitting yellow fever, why is New Orleans spending so much cleaning up? The fact is that the mosquito is probably credited with much more than he is actually responsible for, and the government doctors who are sending out literature that the mosquito is alone responsible for the spread of the disease, however sincere they may be, are imposing on the credulity of the public, and doubtless inspiring people with a sense of security that may not prove justified. Havana has conquered yellow fever, but not by killing the mosquitoes. It did it by cleaning up. Every city should clean up. If yellow fever is caused by mosquitoes, why does it not become epidemic every year? Certainly not because of any lack of mosquitoes.

The fact that our enterprising and omniscient metropolitan papers disagree over the prospects of peace, and some say it will not, shows that they are all only guessing. It is not certain what is going to happen, but is likely that both sides are bluffing, and will keep on bluffing as long as there is any hope of gaining anything by it.

Just to show how foolish that Illinois quarantine is, the Cairo health authorities were afraid to allow three men from Paducah who had no health certificates to get off their boat, but when they did get off they were arrested and put in jail. It's funny if it was dangerous to let the men get off, but it isn't also dangerous to keep them in jail.

Every citizen of Paducah in the business section should without delay purchase a large can, and hereafter deposit all garbage and trash in it, so the city can send its cart along and pick it up. Paducah must clean up. Typhoid epidemics are reported in many places, and every city should be clean at any cost.

A strange thing happened the other day when a "temperance" barbecue was held in Graves county, but stranger still is the announced fact that they all had a good time.

SALE DEFERRED.

Independent Telephone Plant Not to Be Sold Until Sept. 11.

The sale of the People's Independent telephone plant here did not take place today, as Special Commissioner E. W. Bagby postponed the sale until September 11th. The Home Telephone company has been organized here to buy in the property. It is not expected that there will be any other bidders as no one else seems to want the plant.

The sale of the plant here was postponed on account of a technicality in advertising and the date of sale has been set for September 11th.

This morning the appraisers started to work appraising the plant. The appraisers are C. E. Jennings, of the city; Robert E. Cooper, Hopkinsville, and Hiram K. Cole, of Memphis. The work of appraising will probably consume the greater part of the day.

END OF NOBLE LIFE CAME UNEXPECTEDLY

Mrs. John E. Williamson, Jr., Died of General Debility.

Had Lived in Paducah for Thirty Years and Was a Much-Loved Christian Woman.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR FUNERAL.

The unexpected death of Mrs. Elizabeth Brownfield Williamson, wife of Capt. John E. Williamson, at 509 North Sixth street, at 10:16 o'clock Saturday night, brought sorrow to many hearts. Mrs. Williamson had been very ill for several days but few of her many friends knew that her condition was so serious. Her health had been failing for the past two years, but her final illness lasted only a week.

Mrs. Williamson was one of the few remaining Paducah women of the early days. She was one of those kind, gentle women so well known, and loved wherever known. She derived great enjoyment in life from the happiness of others, and her unselfish devotion to husband, children and friends was a trait that endeared her to all who knew her. A consistent Christian, she took great interest in making lighter the burden of others as best she could, and only those who knew her well fully understood her lovely, kindly nature.

Mrs. Williamson was born in Vermillion county, Ill., April 3, 1836, and was daughter of Isaac and Katherine Brownfield. While a child her parents moved to Ohio, and her education was finished in a Cincinnati college. She was married there to Capt. Williamson on June 4, 1856, and they moved to Jefferson county, Ky., where they lived until the following year, when they came to Paducah. Since then they continuously lived here and have reared a family of useful, prosperous children. Thirty years of their life were spent in their present home, and surrounded by their children and grandchildren, the life of this family has been happily free from care and trouble, and full of joy and contentment. The invasion of death now brings a grief all the more poignant and leaves a vacant place that can never be filled.

In church circles Mrs. Williamson was as earnest and energetic to help those about her and contribute to their comfort and happiness as in her home life. She became a member of the Christian church in 1858, and was always one of the foremost in the work. Her life was consecrated to good, and no words of eulogy could express the beauty of her disposition and good of her Christian deeds, nor can words adequately tell of the irreparable loss sustained in her death.

Besides her husband, Capt. John E. Williamson, she leaves six children, four sons and two daughters, as follows:

Mr. Charles H. Williamson, Dr. Harry F. Williamson, Mr. John E. Williamson, Jr., and Mr. Fred Williamson, and Mrs. Kittle Willis, all of Paducah, and Mrs. James Haldwin, of Smithland, Ky.

The funeral took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence, services by Rev. W. H. Pinkerton, burial at Oak Grove.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. F. M. Fisher, W. F. Paxton, Jack Walenstein, L. H. Ogilvie, Charles Hall, J. K. Bondurant, R. J. Settle and Thomas W. Baird.

FELL FROM WAGON.

Charles McCarty Painfully Hurt Saturday Night.

Mr. Charles McCarty, a well known young man of the south side, met with a painful accident Saturday night near Eleventh and Tennessee streets. He was riding on the John Jones grocery wagon when he lost his balance and fell off. The wheels of the vehicle passed over his body and severely bruised and cut his arms. The injuries, while painful, are not serious, and the young man will be disabled but a few days.

Disagreement Between Wickliffe and Cairo Settled—Steamer Hoxie Has Trouble.

ABOUT THE LOCAL SITUATION

A threatened clash between the authorities at Wickliffe, Ky., and Cairo, Ill., has been averted by a conference held yesterday at Wickliffe. The Illinois authorities had been trying to exercise as much authority on the Kentucky side of the river as on the other, and the Wickliffe authorities demurred.

The trouble was taken up yesterday morning between Dr. Palmer and the Kentucky authorities. Early in the day Dr. McCormick, of Bowling Green, Ky., assistant secretary of the Kentucky state board of health, and surgeon general of the state guard, in camp near Paducah, went to Cairo and had a long conference with Dr. Palmer. The general situation was gone over and it was decided to visit Wickliffe and consult with the officials there. Dr. Palmer, after a lengthy consultation with the mayor and other officials, at Wickliffe, succeeded in reaching an amicable understanding with them, whereby the system which he has been using will be allowed to continue. The citizens of Wickliffe realize that for the purpose of keeping out dangerous refugees both Cairo and Wickliffe can co-operate better than either place can do it alone.

Putting the Lid on Tighter.

Illinois, according to reports, is putting the lid on tighter, and hereafter health certificates will be required certifying that the bearer has not been in an infected district for ten days. The Cairo Bulletin says:

"One thing that will go into effect as a result of yesterday's meeting is that the method of inspecting and accepting health certificates from now on will be a great deal more strict than it has been heretofore. Until yesterday the local inspectors have been accepting most any kind of certificate a traveler offers, but beginning with last night and from now on the certificates must be bona fide, signed by reputable physicians, and the certificate must state that the bearer has not, to the personal knowledge of the physician signing the same, been in any infected district within a period of ten days."

"The reason for this action is that it has been learned that there are a number of towns in Kentucky and Tennessee where health certificates are hawked about by irresponsible parties just for the revenue, presumably, there is to be derived. In one town in Kentucky persons meet all trains and go through them selling certificates to whoever will buy, when the sellers never saw the purchasers before in their lives nor know whence they came. In another place, these vendors, and one of them is a health officer, meet all trains and steamboats, crying out health certificates for sale. A stop will be put to this if possible, and the line will be tightly drawn."

"Paducah is said to be one of the worst sinners in this respect that the local officials have to contend with."

Hoxie's Crew in Trouble.

When the H. M. Hoxie left Paducah yesterday for Cairo, the officers and crew little expected what was in store for them in Cairo. The second mate and three men were arrested at Cairo and jailed, and the Cairo Bulletin thus tells about it:

"The men were put in jail where they are now incarcerated, except the mate, Chick Smith, who was later released and sent to his home in Louisville. Besides being arrested and thrown in jail, Smith was later dismissed by Captain Souser, of the boat, for his conduct in trying to disobey the orders of the health officers."

"The Hoxie arrived from Paducah about four o'clock. Her officers were warned a day or two ago that they must not land men in this city without health certificates. The boat landed at the combine fleet's headquarters just this side of the Point. Drs. Palmer and Krohn, who were returning from Wickliffe in a steam launch, where they had gone to adjust matters, observed the boat and knowing the previous trouble with her, pulled in to make an investigation. They found three men on board without certificates and notified the boat's captain not to put the men off on the Illinois shore. While the health officers were engaged in conversation with the captain, the boat's mate, Chick Smith, lowered a yawl on the other side and was about to make off with the men when they were discovered skimming along the bank of the river toward the city. The physicians, accompanied by Dr. W. C. Clarke, whom they had sent for, jumped into their launch and overtook them and brought them all to town, where they were turned over to the police and taken to jail.

"Dr. Palmer last night issued rigid instructions to all steamboat men in regard to violating regulations, and any disregard of these instructions will result in the boats being tied up and not allowed to do business."

Deputy Health Officers.

The county board of health in order to facilitate travel and business in this county, has taken steps to accommodate the public by the appointment of deputy health officers.

Dr. Rudolph, has been appointed a deputy health officer at Woodville, and Dr. Kimbrough, a deputy at Maxon's Mills. Both have authority to issue health certificates and will do so on application.

The doctors are generally amused over the fever scare and the issuance of health certificates. They say that the way health certificates are being made out and distributed is really a farce, and that little or no protection is afforded, either here or at Cairo.

authorities that no health certificate is worth anything where no official health certificate is demanded, unless it has the seal of the city or county board of health, and no one has a right to use the seal except the secretary of the respective boards.

FIRST REGIMENT

Has Contracted With Prof. William Deal for His Band for Eight Days.

Another honor was accorded Prof. Wm. Deal and his band today when he was awarded the contract for furnishing the music for the First Regiment, formerly known as the "Louisville Legion," which arrives Wednesday at Camp Yelder for an eight days' stay.

The First Regiment has no regular band, and the members of the Third Regiment band, which was expected to furnish music for both the First and Third Regiments, could not get off from their various employments for the whole sixteen days. Hence the First Regiment had to secure another band and it showed good judgment when it selected Prof. Deal's band. Four musicians will come with the regiment, and Prof. Deal will furnish the remainder. The Paducah man will occupy the band quarters in camp during the time the First Regiment is in camp, just as the soldiers, as they have to be up too early in the morning to spend their nights in town.

People and Pleasant Events

Miss Greenup's Success.

Friends and admirers of Miss Lotta Carleton Greenup, formerly of Paducah, will be interested in the following from yesterday's Courier-Journal:

Miss Lotta Carleton Greenup has returned to Louisville, after three years of study of the violin in Berlin and Prague. While in Europe she earned the regard and approval of her teachers, who are the foremost masters of the violin in the world today, and brings with her testimonials of their appreciation of the high order of work she accomplished and their predictions of a brilliant future.

In Berlin Miss Greenup studied under the personal tutelage of Joseph Joachim, undoubtedly the greatest living interpretative teacher of the violin. Joachim teaches only a limited number of pupils, and admission to his classes is gained only after the most rigid tests and is a coveted honor.

After finishing a two years' course in Berlin, Miss Greenup went to Prague, Bohemia, where she studied under that master of technique, Ottavio Sevcik of whose school Kubelik is a product. There, as at Berlin, after playing for the master, she was admitted to his special classes, which like those under Joachim, are select and limited.

At Prague also, as at Berlin, she had the advantages of the musical atmosphere and had opportunities of hearing and seeing the famous Bohemian operas, which cannot be seen under such favorable conditions anywhere else. She won the regard of Sevcik, and she bears with her a testimonial of her work.

Her natural ability, her predisposition to work hard and thoroughly, coupled with the advantages she has had of studying under such men, prepare Miss Greenup for a successful career. In fact, she has already received no little attention from the leaders in the musical world, and is now considering several flattering offers for the coming fall and winter. She as yet has signed no contract and will spend the remainder of the summer with her father's family, who are absent from Louisville at present. She will appear before the public in the fall and winter. After the coming season she will return to Europe. She has not decided whether she will take up concert work or tour the larger centers as a soloist, but has opportunities to do either.

Joe and Leon Jobin, marine divers, left yesterday for Paducah to assist in the work of raising the towboat Joe B. Williams, which sunk above Smithland, in the Ohio river, last Thursday....The steamer City of Memphis will be withdrawn from the Tennessee river trade in consequence of the falling off in business on account of the yellow fever in the south. The company will have no boat out today, but the City of Savannah will be sent out next Wednesday evening.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

The City of Savannah passed out of Tennessee river for St. Louis at 9:40 Saturday night and the excursionists enjoyed the time in Paducah. They were not allowed to get off the boat anywhere between Paducah and Calro, as they had no health certificates.

The job of surveying the river from Louisville to Calro is no small undertaking. The work can be done only in about five months in the year. It is estimated that it will take two years in which to complete it. The work of running the soundings from Cincinnati to Louisville, which will complete the survey between those points, and to make the complete survey from Louisville to Calro will have to be done within the appropriation of $50,000. Burgess thinks the work can be done with this appropriation, but this does not mean that a topographical map of the bed of the river will be made. This would cost a great deal more. There will be two separate crews, whose work will be entirely different, although they will work in conjunction with each other.

The whistle seems to be the dangerous thing about the gasoline yachts and launches. J. S. Alsthorpe, of Calro, Ill., launched a vessel of this type and soon after her whistle blew up, bursting a big hole in the side of the boat. A few days ago a yacht was wrecked in the same manner at Mount City.

The movement for a national waterways convention has been formally handed over to the National rivers and harbors congress. It now remains to be seen what that organization will do with it. Meanwhile, the efforts of the Ohio river interests to hasten the improvements of the Ohio river should not be allowed.

nine feet of water from Pittsburg to Calro. It may be as well to remember that a good deal has been accomplished in the past without the national rivers and harbors congress and that it would be a good idea to keep on working along the same old successful lines no matter what the national rivers and harbors congress does.

Captain John Case and Captain Tom Pandrey are at the wreck of the Joe B. Williams at The Sisters. Geo. Wilson, one of the crew of the Exporter, is missing. It is supposed he fell overboard at Lawrenceburg.

MONSTER ENGINES

MAY BE USED BETWEEN LOUISVILLE AND PADUCAH.

One Brought to Be Tested. If Successful 25 New Ones Will Be Sent to Paducah.

Engine No. 812, one of the biggest type of freight engines made, was brought to Paducah yesterday for a test and if the test proves successful 25 of these engines direct from the Baldwin works will be sent here for use between Paducah and Louisville on both the Paducah and Louisville districts.

The engine is a monster with four drive wheels. The boiler is a great deal larger than 600 class engines and set a great deal higher. The tender has a capacity of double the ordinary freight engine. All the improvements combined make the engine's pulling capacity nearly double the capacity of the ordinary engine.

Last winter and this summer the tunnels between here and Louisville were cut out to permit the passage of the largest engines, and this week the monster machine will be taken out on the road for a test. It was sent here from the St. Louis division and if it gets through the tunnels and proves successful for the division, will be returned and consignments of this type sent here at once from the works.

The business of the division has become such that the largest and strongest engines are demanded for the heavy trains. It was only a few years ago that the 600 class engines were sent here but it soon became apparent that even larger engines were needed. It was then that the company decided to send the biggest engines possible to secure.

MASON AND DIXON'S

Line Has Been Resurveyed and Posts Planted.

The resurvey of the historic Mason and Dixon line has been completed by the corps employed jointly by the states of Pennsylvania and Maryland, says a Hanover, Pa., letter to the Philadelphia Inquirer.

When the legislatures of the two states decided not to allow the famous boundary line to disappear so far as visible signs of its location were concerned, they undertook a work that proved very difficult and tedious. The surveyors were obliged to cut a path through the mountains, and they found many of the old markers and crown stones displaced. In Adams county one stone was used as a doorstep in a dwelling, another in a church; some were doing duty in bake ovens and others were lying miles from their original places. All were recovered although not without vigorous objection on the part of the persons who were using them.

The work of re-establishing the line was very carefully done and the old stone posts set along its course after Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon marked it out in 1763 were reset in solid cement bases, and iron posts were substituted in places where the old posts have disappeared.

The Adventure of the Three Students

No. 9 of the Series

"I will tell you, then, in a few words the character of the three men who inhabit those rooms. The lower of the three is Gilchrist, a fine scholar and athlete; plays in the Rugby team and the cricket team for the college and got his blue for the hurdles and the long jump. He is a fine, manly fellow. His father was the notorious Sir James Gilchrist, who ruined himself on the turf. My scholar has been left very poor, but he is hardworking and industrious. He will do well."

"The second floor is inhabited by Hantel, the Indian. He is a quiet, insatiable fellow, as most of those Indians are. He is well up in his work, though his Greek is his weak subject. He is steady and methodical. The top floor belongs to Miles McLaren. He is a brilliant fellow when he chooses to work—one of the brightest intellects of the university—but he is wayward, dissipated and unprincipled. He was nearly expelled over a scandal in his first year. He has been lifting all this term, and he must look forward with dread to the examination."

"That is he whom you suspect?"

"I dare not go so far as that, but of the three he is perhaps the least unlikely."

"Exactly. Now, Mr. Soames, let us have a look at your servant, Bannister."

He was a little, white faced, clean shaven, grizzled fellow of fifty. He was still suffering from this sudden disturbance of the quiet routine of his life. His plump face was twitching with his nervousness, and his fingers could not keep still.

"We are investigating this unhappy business, Bannister," said his master.

"Yes, sir."

"I understand," said Holmes, "that you left your key in the door?"

"Yes, sir."

"Was it not very extraordinary that you should do this on the very day when there were these papers inside?"

"It was most unfortunate, sir. But I have occasionally done the same thing at other times."

"When did you enter the room?"

"It was about half past 4. That is Mr. Soames' tea time."

"How long did you stay?"

"When I saw that he was absent, I withdrew at once."

"Did you look at these papers on the table?"

"No, sir; certainly not."

"How came you to leave the key in the door?"

"I had the tea tray in my hand. I thought I would come back for the key. Then I forgot."

"Has the outer door a spring lock?"

"No, sir."

"Then it was open all the time?"

"Yes, sir."

"Any one in the room could get out?"

"Yes, sir."

"When Mr. Soames returned and called for you, you were very much disturbed?"

"Yes, sir. Such a thing has never happened during the many years that I have been here. I nearly fainted, sir."

"So I understand. Where were you when you began to feel bad?"

"Where was I, sir? Why, here, near the door."

"That is singular, because you sat down in that chair over yonder near the corner. Why did you pass these other chairs?"

"I don't know, sir. It didn't matter to me where I sat."

"I really don't think he knew much about it, Mr. Holmes. He was looking very bad—quite ghastly."

"You stayed here when your master left?"

"Only for a minute or so; then I looked the door and went to my room."

"Whom did you suspect?"

"Oh, I would not venture to say, sir. I don't believe there is any gentleman in this university who is capable of plotting by such an action. No, sir; I'll not believe it."

"Thank you; that will do," said Holmes. "Oh, one more word. You have not mentioned to any of the three gentlemen whom you attend that anything is amiss?"

"No, sir; not a word."

"You haven't seen any of them?"

"No, sir."

"Very good. Now, Mr. Soames, we will take a walk in the quadrangle, if you please."

Three yellow squares of light shone above us in the gathering gloom.

"Your three birds are all in their nests," said Holmes, looking up. "Hello! What's that? One of them seems really enough."

"No difficulty in the world," Soames answered. "This set of rooms is quite the object in the college, and it is not unusual for visitors to go over them. Come along, and I will personally conduct you."

"No names, please!" said Holmes as we knocked at Gilchrist's door. A tall, faxen haired, slim young fellow opened it and made us welcome when he understood our errand. There were some recently curious pieces of medieval domestic architecture within. Holmes was so charmed with one of them that he insisted on drawing it in his notebook, broke his pencil, had to borrow one from our host and finally borrowed a knife to sharpen his own. The same curious accident happened to him in the room of the Indian—a silent little book nosed fellow, who eyed us askance and was obviously glad when Holmes' architectural studies had come to an end. I could not see that in either case Holmes had come upon the clue for which he was searching. Only at the third did our visit prove abortive. The outer door would not open to our knock and nothing more substantial than a torrent of bad language came from behind it. "I don't care who you are. You can go to blazes!" roared the angry voice. "Tomorrow's the exam, and I won't be drawn by any one."

"A ride fellow!" said our guide, flushing with anger as we withdrew down the stair. "Of course he did not realize that it was I who was knocking, but none the less his conduct was very uncourteous and, indeed, under the circumstances rather suspicious."

Holmes' response was a curious one. "Can you tell me his exact height?" he asked.

"Really, Mr. Holmes, I cannot undertake to say. He is taller than the Indian, not so tall as Gilchrist. I suppose five foot six would be about it."

"That is very important," said Holmes. "And now, Mr. Soames, I wish you good night."

Our guide cried aloud in his astonishment and dismay. "Good gracious, Mr. Holmes, you are surely not going to leave me in this abrupt fashion! You don't seem to realize the position. Tomorrow is the examination. I must make some definite action tonight. I cannot allow the examination to be held if one of the papers has been tampered with. The situation must be faced."

"You must leave it as it is. I shall drop round early tomorrow morning and chat the matter over. It is possible that I may be in a position then to influence some course of action. Meanwhile, you change nothing—nothing."

ROBBED SLEEPER

NEGRO AFTERWARDS POINTED OUT TO CAPT. WOODS.

An Exciting Chase and Pistol Shot— The Negro Got Away.

A feeling form closely followed by a police officer, who fired once to frighten the fugitive caused a great deal of excitement on South Fourth street between Broadway and Kentucky avenue last night about 10 o'clock.

Captain Wood, of the police department, was seated at his desk in police headquarters when a boy named Pruitt came in all out of breath and told the captain he had seen a negro rob a sleepwalker while man on the river front near the Jackson foundry at First and Kentucky avenue and that he would show him to the captain.

Captain Wood grabbed up his pistol and started for the door. The negro had just passed the hall and the boy identified him. Captain Wood followed and commanded him to halt but the negro, seeing the officer with the boy, who he knew saw him rob the sleeper, "faded away."

He turned down Fourth street towards Broadway and Captain Wood repeated his command to halt. The negro ran faster and Captain Wood pulled his pistol and fired.

The fugitive turned into an alley between the Moccasin and Worela law offices and Captain Wood lost him.

The man who was robbed proved to be the cook on the Hoxie which passed here yesterday. The negro "touched" him for $20.

The name of the negro could not be learned by the officers, but they have a good description of him and are keeping a good lookout for him.

KITTY GETS NEW LEASE OF LIFE

It Was Decided Yesterday to Play the Season Out.

Paducah, Vincennes and Princeton Voted to Remain—Cairo Alone Objected.

ACTION WAS QUITE A SURPRISE

The K. I. T. league, it is announced today, will play the season out.

This will be as great a surprise to the general public as it was to some of the baseball men, all of whom fully expected today's to be the last regular game in the Kitty.

Cairo, confidently expecting that the league would disband, proceeded several days ago to "get from under" by selling two of her best players, Paducah also sold Platt, but he had jumped, and probably wouldn't have returned, anyhow.

Cairo, for some reason, probably because they can't stand to lose down there is anxious to end the agony, and if someone doesn't watch her, it is likely she will attempt none of her foxy tricks later on, and force the league to disband.

Today's Cairo Bulletin says of the league meeting there yesterday:

"The Kitty Baseball league is a 'hard child to nurse,' and a harder one to kill. While its friends and relatives were gathered around its bier shedding tears over its untimely death, the Kitty burst from its coffin and tearing off its grave clothes, swore it wasn't dead, and that to prove it, it would play out the season of 1905."

"This in effect, was the result of the meeting of league officials held in this city last night at the Haliday hotel. The schedule will be continued indefinitely, which means that the season will go on until frost comes."

"Those present at the meeting were: Chas. W. Brown, president of the league, Paducah; C. F. C. Gosnell, treasurer, Vincennes; Fred Ewing, Princeton; C. S. Carey, Cairo. The Paducah Association was not represented. Henry Lloyd, manager of the Paducah team, went to the meeting to represent the Indians, but he had no proxy, so he could not participate."

"Cairo did not want to continue the league and was in favor of ending the season with today's games, but Paducah and Vincennes were for playing it out, and after some persuasion won Princeton over to their way of thinking, and so the vote was in favor of going ahead 3 to 1."

"The Cairo Association has been losing money, because of the big falling off in attendance, which was the reason for wanting to stop now."

"The new turn of affairs finds the Mud Wallopers seriously crippled and without a catcher, and lamenting the loss of one of their star twirlers, Lemon and Blittroff, who were sold to Decatur for $500, left last night to join that team. The management felt greatly chagrined at their departure, after it had been decided to continue the league, but the men had already been sold, and the deal could not be stopped."

"Taate consequently will have to do the catching temporarily, until another receiver can be picked up."

President Charles Brown returned from Cairo today and said in regard to yesterday's meeting that the league simply decided to play indefinitely, and that if the patronage warrants, this may mean to the end of the season. On the other hand, if lovers of the sport in the circuit do not show the proper interest, the league may disband at any time.

Justice Young's Court.

Mrs. Frank Stevenson, of the Littleville section, was fined $1 and costs this morning in Justice Jesse Young's court for a breach of the peace. She was accused of using abusive language towards Mrs. Geraldine Derrington. Mattie Stevenson, her daughter, who is alleged to have engaged in a difficulty with several House children of the same neighborhood, was arraigned for a breach of the peace and the case left open.

Attorney Oscar Kahn has prepared to file today in circuit court a suit for J. W. Hite against Morrow and J. D. Carneal on a note of $166.

The ice cream supper to be given by the ladies of Magnolia Grove has been postponed from Tuesday night at the residence of Mrs. G. W. Lee's, 326 South Third.

A SMALL ARMY

IS AT WORK ON THE SUNKEN JOE WILLIAMS.

Several Days Will Be Required to Haulhead Her—Captain Sebott on the Scene.

Captain Max Sebott, general manager of the Combine's boats, left here this morning on the Wash Honsell for the wreck of the Joe Williams. Captain Sebott thinks that the Williams will be raised, and that no serious trouble will occur. There is a force of some 60 men at work on the wreck today, the Honsell taking up thirty carpenters and laborers this morning. The work of hauling the hull commenced Saturday and it is thought this work will take six days. All the rigging and movable material on the boat will be taken off so that the wreck may be made as light as possible and several hundred more sand bags will be put around the hull to prevent the current from washing the sand out from under her and leaving her in danger of breaking in two. There are 6,000 bags of sand around her now and the cost of raising her is estimated at from six to eight thousand dollars. The hole in the hull was found to be 90 feet long, much longer than it was first thought to be. The Williams is one of the largest boats on the river being 220 feet long and 52 feet wide. The other boats which were there with the Williams have left with the exception of the Honsell which will remain to carry supplies to the workmen.

The greatest difficulty, however, is getting the steamer off the snag when she is bulkheaded. There are now only about six feet at Caseyville. When the big towboat is bulkheaded and can be pumped out there will have to be water enough to raise her above the level of the stump or log, which still penetrates her hull. As the stump is several feet high, it will require considerably more water to get the boat off the stump than is now in sight.

IN THE COURTS

First Meeting of Creditors.

Attorney E. W. Bagby, referee in bankruptcy, returned Sunday morning from Fulton where he had gone to attend the first meeting of creditors in the bankrupt case of George Kirkland, a prominent buggy dealer who filed a petition in bankruptcy several days ago. The meeting was not finished, being left open for attorneys to prepare and file depositions. The assets in the case amount to about $3,000 and Mr. Ed. Thomas, of Fulton, was elected trustee by the creditors, this being the only step of importance taken in the case.

Police Court.

Ben Satterfield, colored, was arraigned in police court today for striking Mary Strickland with his fist and then placing a sharp knife to her throat and threatening to cut her head off. Satterfield admitted he struck her with his hand but did not intend to hurt her. He also remembered that he placed a knife on her throat, but explained that he could have cut her had he any such intentions. He was only "playing," not mad. The woman thought differently and Judge Cross after hearing the testimony fined Satterfield $20 and costs.

Levy Trice, colored, went to Sarah Dabney's house and jerked her out of her room and knocked her down. He did not remember striking her with his fist, but did remember slapping her. He was fined $30 and costs.

Albert Wallace, colored, who struck Dan Sayres, white, mate on the Dunbar, with a brick, was held over for malicious assault under a $300 bond which he failed to give.

Other cases were: Sam Parsons, colored, drunk, $1 and costs; Fred Romaine, white, breach of ordinance, dismissed; Jim Bulger, white, breach of ordinance, dismissed; W. D. Scott, white, breach of ordinance, dismissed; W. M. Mitchell, white, violating Sabbath, continued; Ismael Brothers, white, violating Sabbath, dismissed; John W. Dorn, white, breach of the peace, $5 and costs; Will Overton, colored, breach of the peace, continued; John HMI, colored, Jim Vickers, white, breach of the peace, continued; W. C. Stanford, white, violating Sabbath, continued.

SECOND BREAKS CAMP TONIGHT

Leaves On a Special Train for Louisville at 10 p. m.

The Louisville Regiment Will Arrive Wednesday—Fine Lot of Men.

LATE NEWS OF CAMP YEISER

With the dress parade this evening at 5:30 the Second regiment of the Kentucky state guards will finish its last official duty of the encampment, as at 10 o'clock tonight the soldiers leave on a special train over the Illinois Central for Louisville, where they make connections for their homes.

Encampment Very Successful.

Colonel Roger Williams, commander, stated this morning that the encampment had been one of the most, if not the most, successful he had ever attended. The instructions have greatly benefited the soldiers and are bound to show results. This is the first time the state soldiers have ever received any schooling from the regular army. Lieutenant Beckham, of the artillery corps, U. S. A., has charge of the officers' school and they say he is one of the most competent men in military tactics to whom they ever listened. The five non-commissioned officers of the U. S. army, have been instructing the privates. Four more should have been here from Ft. Wayne, Mich., but on account of a misunderstanding about transportation they failed to reach "Camp Yeiser" for the Second regiment but word was received this morning that they would be here the night of the 16th. This will give the camp nine non-commissioned officers from the regular army for the Third and First regiments, one non-commissioned officer for each company. Three non-commissioned officers were confined to their tents for absenting themselves without a leave but were released yesterday.

Inspected Camp.

This morning Colonel Williams and his officers inspected the camps and sinks so they will be left in good condition for the next regiment. The encampment of the Second regiment has been devoid of accidents or particularly peculiar incident. Colonel Williams says the citizens have displayed genuine Kentucky hospitality and the weather has been ideal for an encampment. There has been little drinking and the cases that have come before Judge Advocate General Briggs were of minor importance.

Mayor Entertains Officers.

Sunday Mayor D. A. Yeiser entertained Colonel Williams, Colonel Morrow, Lieutenant Beckham, Captain Richardson and Lieutenant McCloud at dinner at his summer home in Arcadia. Tonight the regimental band will give the mayor a serenade.

Officers for Today.

Captain E. B. Dishman, company H, Harboursville, is officer of the day; Lieutenant Smith, company G, Danville, senior officer of the guard, and Lieutenant Hunley, company C, Lexington, junior officer of the guard. Sunday Captain W. B. Richardson, company G, Danville, was officer of the day.

General Cleaning Up.

Tomorrow and Wednesday there will be a general cleaning up for the First regiment, which arrives here at 5 o'clock Thursday morning on a special train from Louisville under command of Colonel Blasco Hindman, of Louisville. All of the companies are from Louisville except the Bardstown cadets, who are from the college at Bardstown, giving the First regiment ten companies. This is one of the finest regiments in the state and is composed of a jolly lot of men. Colonel Hindman is also one of the most capable commanding officers in the state guards. The troops will be taken to 11th and Broadway and hauled to camp on street cars free of charge.

Prominent Louisville Man Here.

Commissary Captain Joseph Hufnaker, of Louisville, will be here tonight to make arrangements for the First regiment's provisions. He is one of the most prominent men in Louisville, being commonwealth's attorney of Jefferson county, and is also a son-in-law of J. W. Holmes, engineer at the plant of the Paducah Water company.

Will Leave a Guard.
Colonel Gaines today detailed Captain Longmire and 12 men of battery A, Frankfort, to remain at "Camp Yeiser" to perform guard duty tomorrow and Wednesday and fire the cannons for the salute of the governor when he inspects the First and Third regiments.

There was a heavy rain and wind about 3 o'clock this morning at the camp but it did no material damage. Two or three tents were blown down. The grounds, which are sloping, soon dried out. A fine breeze has been blowing all day, being a great comfort to the soldiers.

Immense Crowds Yesterday.

An immense crowd visited the camp Sunday afternoon and night. The day was spent quietly by the troops. There was guard mount in the morning and dress parade at 5:30 p. m. On account of being without a chaplain there was no religious service. The baseball park was jammed with people for the dress parade, which was one of the best that has been held since the regiment went into camp. Colonel Williams made a regimental inspection in the morning of arms and condition of the tents and ground, finding everything in first class order.

Saturday Night Dance.

The dance given Saturday night by the signal service corps was well attended. Street cars were run for their accommodation until midnight. They realized a few dollars, which was divided amongst the members of the corps. The baseball game scheduled between a team from the Frankfort companies and the 1905's was not played Saturday afternoon as the soldiers were not paid off in time.

ENCAMPMENT NOTES.

Colonel Nadaud, a member of the governor's staff, leaves tonight for his home in Covington. He will return when the governor reviews the First and Third regiments.

Colonel Blasco Hindman, commander of the First regiment, which goes into camp Thursday, stated over the long distance telephone this morning that he would bring a fine automobile with him.

The regimental officers were at the target range Sunday practicing.

The signal service corps will clean up grounds tomorrow and Wednesday. The tents will be rolled up and the interiors allowed to sun.

Colonel Edward Leigh, private secretary to the governor, visited "Camp Yeiser" Sunday, returning to Frankfort last night.

W. H. McPherson, the druggist, gave the soldiers a nice treat by sending every man a ticket entitling him to a drink at his soda fountain. He will also issue tickets to the other two regiments.

Mr. W. C. Marshall, of Frankfort, is a guest of Adjutant General Percy Italy.

Colonel Jouett Henry, commander of the Third regiment, has returned to Hopkinsville, after an examination of the camp.

Captain E. B. Dishman, company B, Harboursville, arrived this morning and took charge of his company. He could not come sooner owing to the death of his child. He is a son of Judge Dishman and an excellent gentleman.

The tent occupied by Colonel Eph Lillard and Colonel Nadaud blew down about 3 o'clock this morning and for a while they had an exciting time. Colonel Lillard called for a corporal, who answered and helped them out of the tent, which they were holding up. Colonel Lillard said to Colonel Nadaud, "If either of us have to die let it be me." Colonel Nadaud replied, "After me, my dear Alphonse." Both got soaking wet.

Tomorrow and Wednesday will be dull days at the camp, but business will pick up Thursday. Girls, just think of all those Louisville boys who will be here. It is a standoff between the First and Third as to which is the crack regiment of the state.

The ammunition for the cannon is expected in a day or two. On the governor's next visit they will be used to fire his salute.

Telephone Plant Appraised.

The appraisers for the People's Independent Telephone company this afternoon finished their appraisal and fixed the value of the plant and property at $113,400. The report was made to special Commissioner E. W. Bagby.

ILLEGAL DEALING IN CERTIFICATES

Destined to Cause Trouble for Paducah and Kentucky.

Meeting of the General Council Called for This Evening to Act.

ILLINOIS MUCH DISSATISFIED

The charge that persons in Paducah have been dealing in health certificates for the profit there is in it, has caused the Illinois health authorities to become more drastic in their measures towards Kentucky in general and Paducah in particular.

Mayor D. A. Yeiser this afternoon called a meeting of the general council for tonight at the city hall to discuss the matter and settle it in some way. This action was taken after a conversation he had with Dr. Palmer at Cairo, over the long distance telephone this morning.

Complaints of the practice resulted in a visit to Cairo yesterday by Dr. A. T. McCormack, surgeon general of the state guards, and assistant state health officer.

Dr. McCormack went to Cairo to meet Dr. Palmer, assistant state health officer of Illinois, and members of the Cairo health board, to take up matters pertaining to the quarantine against Kentucky by Illinois and remedy conditions at Wickliffe.

Cairo is up in arms against Paducah. It was claimed that improper health certificates emanating from Paducah were being issued and being sold to any and everybody who had the price. Dr. McCormack was told that unless it was stopped within a few hours that a non-intercourse quarantine would go into effect against Paducah, which would exclude every person from Paducah from entering the state of Illinois. Not even a health certificate from Paducah would be recognized. Such a quarantine would of course work a hardship on people traveling out of this city to Illinois.

Dr. McCormack said that health certificates already signed were being sold at Paducah for $1 apiece; that trains were visited here and that the seller of the certificates would go on the trains and call out "Here's your health certificates, $1 apiece." Under the law the health officer issuing a certificate must know that the person applying has not been in the fever infected district for five days.

This afternoon Dr. McCormack and Mayor Yeiser held a conference, the former making a full report of what he has learned. The mayor then called the council to take some action to suspend the wholesale dealing in health certificates.

Dr. McCormack, it is probable, will remain here after the encampment to take care of Western Kentucky during the yellow fever epidemic.

County Court.

Judge H. T. Lightfoot held county court this morning but little business was transacted.

The will of Brutus Starr was filed for probate. He left property on South Thirteenth street to his niece Belle Hamilton, and appointed her his administratrix.

The following appraisements were filed for record: In the estate of W. S. Chiles, appraisement fixed at $1,281.30. In the estate of L. H. Duncan, appraisement fixed at $2,003.34. An erroneous assessment to W. J. York of $800, was ordered corrected.

Big I. O. O. F. Celebration.

Local members of the Odd Fellows lodge will go to Folsomdale on the 28th of this month to attend a large celebration to be held there on the second anniversary of that chapter. The lodge was organized there two years ago with a membership of 29 and now has 85 members. The celebration will be a barbecue and many of the local men will speak.

The Northwestern's interest and rent receipts last year, overpaid its death losses by a million, three hundred thousand dollars. It's savings in other departments were just as remarkable. Protect your life in the Northwestern. C. B. Hatfield, District Manager.

Miss Louretta Wright and Mr. George E. Johnson were married yesterday morning at 9:30 at the residence of the bride 1223 North 12th by Rev. W. E. Cave.
